WISDOM PRINCIPLES
FROM THE BOOK OF PROVERBS
READING PLAN

Over 4.7 trillion dollars is predicted to be spent on education globally in a single year. Non-academic education fees such as seminars, books, and non-formal education are not included. Clearly, we live in a world that places a premium on learning. Many of us grew up in families that emphasized the importance of education and earning degrees.

The book of Proverbs also encourages us to gain knowledge and stresses the importance of it in our lives (Proverbs 8:9-10). It also provides us with a unique perspective on where true wisdom originates from; from the fear of the Lord (Proverbs 1:7; 2:5; 9:10). God promises to impart wisdom, knowledge, and understanding.

The book of Proverbs is a rich treasury of wisdom from the only wise God for those who desperately need it. In a society where most individuals choose their own truth, we need to turn to God more as we face life's challenges. May this study of Proverbs help you see things from God's point of view and walk in His footsteps in your daily life.

Introduction

The book of Proverbs is a collection of wise sayings from various authors. The key word in this book is wisdom, which is defined as the "ability to live life skillfully." However, living a godly life in a sinful world is not an easy task. Proverbs gives God's people precise guidance on how to cope successfully with life's practical matters, such as, how to relate to God, parents, children, neighbours, and the government.

The book of Proverbs is credited to Solomon as the primary author (chpt. 1:1, 10:1 and 25:1). The Wise Men (chpt. 22:17-24:34), Agur (chpt. 30), whose name means "gatherer" or "collector," and Lamuel, (chpt. 31), are also contributors to the book. Proverbs' authors combine poetry, parables, concise questions, short stories, and wise maxims to convey succinct common sense and divine insights on how to deal with life's challenges.

We're excited to share this 31-day Bible reading plan based on this book of the Bible. This printable plan for the month of May is a great method to read one chapter of Proverbs each day and finish the book in 31 days.

It is easy to follow and will help you with your reading and devotions. A section has been added for you to jot down any quick reflections or application notes. As you do so, you will see the wise man, the foolish man, the wicked man, and the godly man.

We hope that as you read during the course of this month, you will recognize yourself in the scriptures and gain a better understanding of God's wisdom and how it applies to your daily life. Happy and blessed reading!

REFLECTIONS

Wisdom cries out in the street; in the squares she raises her voice... Those who listen to me will be secure and will live at ease, without dread of disaster.”
- Proverbs 1:20 & 33
